Day 6: Madrid – Toledo, Castilla-La Mancha – Madrid

This morning we will begin our day with a short train journey to Toledo, Spain's former capital. Every aspect of this city reflects a glorious period in Spanish history with Christian, Moorish, and Jewish influences on display at every corner. We will visit the classic Gothic Cathedral filled with spectacular stained-glass windows and mudéjar-style decorations, as well as a visit to a workshop in the Convento de Santa Isabel to see Damasquinado craftsman at work. After lunch we will visit the church of Santo Tomé to see El Greco's masterpiece The Burial of Count Orgaz followed by time to "lose" yourself in the enchanting city and its Jewish Quarter. Before we head to the train station, we must stop at the lookout point to soak in Greco's picturesque view of the city. We will return to Madrid in the early evening. Optional for tonight: typical street food Madrid style...bocadillo de calamares (at your own expense). (Breakfast and lunch included)

September 18, 2022

Day 7: Madrid – Sevilla, Andalucía

Today we journey by AVE (bullet train) southbound through Castilla to Andalucía's sunflower covered countryside and its colorful capital Sevilla, "Cradle of the Flamenco". Upon arriving in Sevilla, we will check-in to our hotel and hit the sites via the hop on-hop off bus making stops to see the Plaza de España built for the 1928 World's Fair, bike through María Luisa Park to feed the pigeons and take a guided walking tour through the narrow, winding streets of the Barrio de Santa Cruz. We will enjoy a leisurely lunch in the Jewish quarter of Santa Cruz. We will top-off the afternoon with a guided tour of La Monumental Maestranza, the most important bullring in Spain. Optional for tonight: Italian dinner in a XII century Arab bath (at your own expense). (Breakfast and lunch included)

Day 8: Sevilla

This morning we will visit the Royal Alcázar dating back to the Middle Ages and explore the city's Gothic treasures, visiting the Cathedral and climbing the soaring Giralda Tower for a breathtaking view of the old city. On the hop on-hop off bus, we will cross the Guadalquivir River where Christopher Columbus returned from his travels to the "New World" to stroll through the gypsy quarter of Triana by guided tour. After lunch, we will continue the hop on-hop off bus circuit back to the center where you can enjoy the rest of the afternoon and evening in Santa Cruz. Dinner on your own tonight. (Breakfast and lunch included)

Day 9: Sevilla – Granada, Andalucía

Today's train or luxury bus travels take us to Granada, the last Moorish stronghold in Spain. Upon arriving in Granada, we will check-in to our hotel, take leisurely stroll along el Paseo de los Tristes and have lunch on your own. After lunch we will meet to visit the arabesque and spellbinding Alhambra Palace, the city's beautifully preserved example of Moorish architecture and one of Spain's most visited attractions, and the Generalife Gardens, the former summer retreat of Moorish kings with its intricate pattern of gardens, fountains, and walkways. This evening we will visit the gypsy quarter of Albayzín for a typical dinner and a passionate zambra, flamenco performance in a gypsy cave. (Breakfast and dinner included)

Day 10: Granada – Olive Oil Tour

Today we will enjoy a half-day excursion to discover the world of liquid gold. The tour will pick us up from our hotel and take us through the beautiful country views of Granada's Vega, the Sierra Nevada and the charming Lecrin Valley. We will drive through the picturesque countryside of olive, almond, orange and lemon trees, mountains, and typical white Andalusian villages. In the Lecrin Valley we will visit a beautifully preserved XV century oil mill, sample various types of olive oil with a wine tasting and tapas. Upon returning to Granada, you can spend leisure time in the afternoon exploring the quaint city. In the early evening, we will go to the lookout San Nicolás where we can relax on roof-top bar with a spectacular view of the Alhambra palace (consumption at your own expense) (Breakfast, and tapas lunch included)
